this rise is thought to be because of chronic hepatitis C, an infection that can cause HCC. At the health ministry, he has worked on almost every topic from financing health systems to climate change.