the result is lower productivity, economic stagnation, and declining prosperity.

to construct the market basket of goods and services, the BLS uses information from the consumer expenditure survey (CEX)