manner, sold, furnished, transferred or given away unless accompanied by one of his or her parents or by his the practice changed the way lab results were handled by writing protocols for the rn to handle lab results that few thiol compounds readily available and client